Title: Student Workers/Interns
Status: Intermittent and full-time

Description Summary:

Springfield anticipates student work opportunities throughout our manufacturing facility. Students are generally welcome to work throughout the summer and over holidays and breaks.

Engineering Disciplines: offer the opportunity to learn basic engineering/manufacturing tasks related to the area of their assignment. Assignments might include analysis, design and development, quality assurance, safety, software improvement, modification of (CAD) documents, corrective actions/non-conformance reports, work instructions, supply management, production work, and more.

Production Work: opportunities may include Assembly, Shipping, Receiving, and/or Metal Processing (Machine Operations). Provides the opportunity to learn production processes from the ground up. Requires the physical ability to stand, regularly lift and move light to medium weight boxes and occasionally heavier objects. Fine hand manipulation used to accomplish tasks. Must be able to identify numbers and/or be responsible for learning simple to complex technical tasks. Must follow safety guidelines and work in a manufacturing area.

Office Work: Marketing, Accounting, Customer Service, Sales, IT, HR, are an example of the departments that routinely employ a variety of disciplines and educational majors to accomplish tasks and goals. Work would revolve around supporting designated department and completing and assigned project work.

Requirements:

Requires the ability to own or possess a firearm in state of residence. Work is in a manufacturing facility. Age requirements apply: must be 18. Recent graduates are welcome to apply. Work may be scheduled to accommodate degree programs for local education and/or remote learning. Qualified applicants may be enrolled in educational programs (for credit). Students participating in the Geneseo Apprentice Program are welcome to apply.

Compensation:

Springfield offers a competitive salary and benefits may be available based on number of hours worked. Holiday pay is offered based on hours worked. To learn more about Springfield Armory products and services visit www.springfield-armory.com.
